

Legal asylum route for persons deemed to be an adult by the Home Office (simplified)

When an appeal is submitted, a person is still lawfully present in the UK while their appeal is being considered. Arrangements for asylum support are made separately and vary for people with dependents under 18 and people without dependents.