Name of the policy/practice to be assessed: Budget Consultation - Outdoor Education Provision			Is this a new, existing or policy/practice under review?	New budget proposal
1. Briefly describe the purpose of the policy/practice: If the policy/practice is under review, please list any options under consideration	Outdoor Education Provision (£79,000): Gwent Outdoor Education Service is a joint service supported by Blaenau Gwent, Newport and Torfaen, with Monmouthshire acting as the lead authority. The service operates three residential centres, Hilston Park, Gilwern and Talybont offering a range of outdoor education activities in the south east Wales area. Activity fees for young people from the four authorities have historically been subsidised by the local authorities. This is a non-statutory service and alternative provision is available for schools that wish to continue to offer this opportunity to pupils. The proposed removal of the subsidy would require the Gwent Outdoor Education Service to become self-financing in terms of any contribution from Newport City Council. This would give rise to Central Education savings of £79k. The impact of the decision may be felt by Schools and individual pupils and parents as the costs of Outdoor Activities may rise within the City, although there are other providers of these types of services available.
