(e) the maximum number of persons or households permitted to occupy the licensed HMO under the conditions of the licence.
LICENSING

7.1 The responsible person of a house in multiple occupation shall apply to licence the house with the Authority.

7.2 On the first application for licensing, the responsible person shall:-
   (a) give the Authority the particulars of the house specified in paragraph 6;
   (b) pay a fee of a reasonable amount determined by the Authority;
   (c) provide a disclosure certificate from Disclosure Scotland or the Disclosure and Barring Service.

7.3 The Licence shall be for a maximum period of five years from date of issue and may be renewed for a further maximum period of five years at a time.

7.4 On or before expiry a period of the licence, the responsible person shall apply for renewal of the licence.

7.5 On renewal of the licence, the responsible person shall:
   (a) notify the authority of any changes in the particulars entered in the register in respect of the house;
   (b) pay a fee of a reasonable amount determined by the Authority; and
   (c) provide a disclosure certificate from Disclosure Scotland or the Disclosure and Barring Service.

7.6 During any period of the licence, the responsible person shall notify the authority of any change in the particulars of the house which make it necessary to alter the particulars inserted in the register except of a decrease in numbers for which the licence is valid.

CONDITIONS FOR LICENSING

8.1 The Authority may, on application for first licence of a house or renewal or variation of a licence:
   (a) refuse the application on the ground that the house is unsuitable and incapable of being made suitable for such occupation as would be permitted if the application were granted;
   (b) refuse the application on the ground that the person having control of the house or the person intended to be managing the house the house is not a fit and proper person;
   (c) require as a condition of granting the application that such works as will make the house suitable for such occupation as would be permitted if the application were granted are executed within such time as the authority determine; and
   (d) impose such conditions relating to the management of the house during the period of the licence as the authority determine.
8.2 The Authority shall give the applicant a written statement of their reasons where they:

(a) refuse to grant his/her application for first registration or for renewal or variation of the licence;

(b) require the execution of works as a condition of granting such an application, or

(c) impose conditions relating to the management of the house.

9.1 The Authority may at any time during the period of the licence (whether or not an application has been made):

(a) alter the number of households or persons for which a house is licensed on the ground that the house is unsuitable and incapable of being made suitable for such occupation as is permitted by virtue of the registration; or

(b) alter the number of households or persons for which a house is licensed or revoke the licence unless such works are executed within a time specified by the authority as will make the house in question suitable for occupation as is permitted by virtue of the licence;

(c) require works to be carried out following an inspection to negate any hazards identified in the house.

9.2 The Authority shall, in deciding whether to exercise the power under sub-paragraph (1), apply these same standards in relation to the circumstances existing at the time of the decision as were applied at the beginning of the period of the licence.

9.3 The Authority may revoke a licence if they consider that:

(a) the person having control of the house or the person managing is not a fit or proper person; or

(b) there has been a breach of the conditions relating to the management of the house.

9.4 The Authority shall:

(a) notify the responsible person of any decision by the authority to exercise a power mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) or (3) in relation to the house; and

(b) at the same time give them a written statement of the Authority's reasons.

PROHIBITION AGAINST OVER-OCCUPATION

10. No person shall permit another to take up residence in a house or part of a house unless:
(a) The house is licensed; and

(b) The number of households or persons occupying it will not as a result exceed the number licensed for it.

The Seal of NEWPORT CITY COUNCIL was hereunto affixed in the presence of the Head of Law and Regulation this 29th day of March 2019.
