Purpose and legal basis for using your information

Here, we will explain the reason why we have collected your personal data and the reasons for processing.

Our legal basis for processing your information:

We have a statutory obligation to process your personal data

Further details about our legal basis for using your information and the purpose of processing:

Closed Circuit Television (CCTV) is in use at the Ellen Ridge site. This processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in us. The information recorded will only be used to assist in the prevention and detection of crime, and to maintain the safety of residents. Please note that the CCTV cameras are positioned to only record activity on site.

The right to withdraw consent

If we are relying on your consent to process your data, you have the right to withdraw your consent to this processing at any point. To do so, please contact the person named at the top of this privacy notice.

(Only relevant to consent based processing)

You must provide us with the information we need to deliver the service, if there is either:

- a) A contractual obligation to do so, or
- b) A statutory obligation to do so.

(Only relevant if the lawful basis for processing is the performance of a contract or Public duty/task obligation)

The consequences of not providing the information are as follows:

Special Category Data

(Only relevant if special category data is being processed)

Sometimes we process special category which is afforded more protection under the Data Protection Act. This is because special category data is deemed to be more sensitive. If we are processing your special category data then we need to establish a further lawful basis for processing, and we have highlighted this below:

Choose a further lawful basis.

Automatic decision making/profiling

(Only relevant if we are making an automated decision on a data subject)

Sometimes we use computers or technology to help us make decisions about the service we offer you. Below are the details of what decision making or profiling systems we have used, and how the decision was made:
