AN ATTRACTIVE RIVERSIDE TOWN WITH A SELECTION OF EATING AND DRINKING PLACES NEAR THE CITY OF NEWPORT

The Fortress of the Legion

Caerleon was one of the most important military sites in Britain under the Roman Empire. It was the home of the 2nd Augustan Legion, housing 5,000 soldiers and horsemen, an amphitheatre, baths, shops and temples.

The Fortress Baths

The military site and way of life is brought to life at the imaginatively displayed Fortress Baths. This would once have been a 'giant leisure centre', with heated changing rooms, swimming pool, huge gymnasium and bath halls. Open: March - end Sept, daily 9.30am - 17.00pm, April - end Oct Mon - Sat 9.30 - 17.00, Sun 11.00 - 16.00. Closed Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, Boxing Day & New Years Day. Admission: Free. Tel: 01633 422518. Visit: www.cadw.wales.gov.uk

The National Roman Legion Museum

The museum graphically portrays the daily life of the garrison with life-size models and an exciting "hands-on" section for children. Open: 10am - 5pm Mon - Sat, 2pm - 5pm Sunday. Closed Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, Boxing Day & New Years Day, closed Sunday mornings. Admission: Free Tel: 02920 573550. Visit: www.museumwales.ac.uk/en/roman

The Amphitheatre & Barracks

Designed to hold 5,000 spectators, this, and the barracks, currently the only Roman barrack blocks visible in Europe, are open free to the public all year, except for occasional events. Legend has it that Caerleon was the first of King Arthur's courts, the amphitheatre allegedly being the site of the Round Table. Open: All year round. Admission: Free. Visit: www.caerleon.net

The Ffwrwm Arts and Craft Centre

Nestling in the glories of an 18th century walled garden, the courtyard here contains several craft shops, a tea room/restaurant, an art gallery and a sculpture garden. Open: All year round. Admission: Free Tel: 01633 430777. Visit: www.ffwrwm.co.uk

Caerleon Arts Festival

An annual summer event which has created the legacy of an interesting sculpture trail around the village and which also includes the very popular summer and Christmas Farmers' Markets. Visit: www.caerleon-arts.org
