School Reorganisation Proposal: Establishment of a New Welsh Medium Primary School and the Relocation of Pillgwenlly Primary School – Final Determination

Options Considered/Reasons for Decision

To seek final determination on the school reorganisation proposal "to establish a new two-form entry Welsh-medium primary school in Newport and as a result to relocate Pillgwenlly Primary School from its current site to the new school on the Whiteheads development".

This school reorganisation proposal was undertaken in accordance with the statutory School Organisation Code and included a formal consultation period followed by the publication of a statutory notice for the required period of 28 days.

The consultation passed through the statutory notice stage without objection and therefore the Cabinet Member for Education and Skills was able to take a final decision for implementation as follows:

- To open the new Welsh-medium primary school under a seedling model from September 2021
- To relocate Pillgwenlly Primary to the new school on the Whiteheads development at the start of the Spring term 2023, and
- To move the new Welsh-medium primary school to its permanent site in Pillgwenlly from September 2023.

Decision

To approve the school reorganisation proposal "to establish a new two-form entry Welsh-medium primary school in Newport and as a result to relocate Pillgwenlly Primary School from its current site to the school on the Whiteheads development".

Consultation

Head of Law and Regulation, Head of People and Business Change and Chief Education Officer.

All members were consulted and provided with an opportunity to comment. Any comments received and response thereafter are set out in the report.
